The Importance of The 4th Step

The third step is not complete until we put the pen to paper in Step Four. It is a true test of your willingness to make a beginning in trusting God. The third step states “We Turned our Will and Our Lives Over to The Care of God”. Our Will= thoughts and Our Life = Actions (Pg.60). Simply, it is our thoughts that dictate and bring life to our actions and our behaviors, and we must shed light on these things if we are to recover.

So, if we could sum up all of recovery into one word, it would be CHANGE. And the change in our lives is first brought about by a change in our old ways of thinking and living. Remember, in step one we are informed that the main problem of the Alcoholic centers in his mind (Pg.23). Our flawed way of thinking is where the obsession to drink begins.

If I am truly ready to change then I must honestly ask myself “Am I willing to get honest about this with MYSELF and my CREATOR through the rigorous action of taking a thorough and fearless moral inventory of my resentments, my fears and my flaws?”
The 4th Step is simply just a “list” of our injuries, parts of self & character defects (Pg.65). This is where the alcoholic first begins to take their looks and thoughts inward because after all this 12-Step journey we are on is an Inside Job. We do not stall; we do not balk if we are truly ready. This step is between you and God, and after all, God already knows it all, so there is nothing left to fear in the Fourth Step aside from the lies that fear itself will tell us.

Once our list is full and complete, making sure we have withheld nothing and have added to our paper all that we can remember, all the way back from the very beginning of our lives (yes, you have to add that resentment you had in the third grade over your witchy teacher) we are ready to take it to another human being in the following step, (which will more than likely be our sponsor). It is imperative that we remember the significant importance of the 4th step and the vital importance of holding onto it and keeping it in a safe place. We are sure not to dispose of this list or burn it for the Big Book tells us that “we refer back to our list for it holds the key to the future” (Pg.66). This list will be used for the following step and the proceeding steps which concern your future amends.

The fourth step is of paramount importance in making the critical change in our old behaviors and in our old way of thinking. Having the opportunity to see ourselves in black & white is an exclusive spiritual experience unlike any other.

Now, who is ready to embark on the most important clean up act of your life? It’s time to trust God and clean house so that you may one day soon help others.

Smiles are free,
so share them.

Step Four: Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.
