The Unity Meeting is Back!

After a six-month hiatus due to roof and mold issues at the Community Congregational Church, we are pleased to announce that the Unity Meeting will resume on March 15, 2025. Despite efforts to find an alternative venue, it was challenging to secure a location that accommodates over 150 attendees on a specific date and time within our AA budget.

Regarding budgetary considerations, host groups of the Unity Meeting have been advised to minimize the cost of food provided. The original intention was to offer refreshments, finger foods, pizza, or desserts, but not to compete in offering extensive dinners each month. A cost-effective approach is for individual group members to contribute various dishes. Pizza Nights, Taco Nights, Sandwich Nights, and Dessert Nights are all suitable options. We look forward to seeing you on March 15th

Turning It Over: Understanding AA's Step Three

Step Three of Alcoholics Anonymous invites us to "make a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him." This pivotal step marks a shift from self-reliance to a reliance on a Higher Power.

For many, the concept can be daunting. It's not about blind faith, but rather a conscious choice to surrender the illusion of control. We acknowledge that our best efforts have failed, and that a power greater than ourselves is necessary for sustained recovery.

"Turning it over" isn't a one-time event, but a continuous practice. It involves daily decisions to seek guidance and trust in a power beyond our understanding. This can manifest through prayer, meditation, or simply pausing to acknowledge our limitations.

Step Three encourages us to relinquish the burdens of past mistakes and future anxieties. It's about accepting that we are not the directors of the universe, and finding peace in surrendering to a higher purpose. Ultimately, this step opens the door to a life of greater serenity and freedom from the grip of alcohol.
