Is Your Home Group Represented by a Literature Chair?

A literature chair plays a key role in ensuring A.A. literature, such as books and pamphlets, is readily available and well-displayed during meetings.

Home group literature chairs are invited to collaborate with the District 15 Literature Committee. Participating in the committee offers a chance to enhance your skills, experience, and understanding of A.A. literature.

A word from the District 15 Literature Chair

"The A.A. Fellowship is one of the world's major sociohistorical movements. We owe it to future A.A. members, as well as to historians, scholars and researchers, to maintain as complete a record as we can of this society at all times, so its message, meaning, and contributions, not only to alcoholics but in other problem areas, can be recalled and assessed for whatever future purpose, fully and accurately."
— NELL WING (NONALCOHOLIC), GSO'S FIRST ARCHIVIST

"When I became archives chair, I felt a mix of uncertainty and excitement—eager to learn and ready to serve a greater purpose. These feelings are fresh in my mind, as I stepped into this role just ten days ago!

One early challenge was understanding terms like "sociohistorical," used in Nell Wing's quote. It refers to the intersection of social and historical factors that shape context or phenomena, which perfectly describes A.A.'s legacy.

Archives provide consistency and preserve the history of our fellowship, but they truly come alive through the everyday actions of members. Moments of clarity, joy, and cherished memories often feel dreamlike in retrospect. Sharing these stories with others keeps them meaningful and inspires growth. By embracing and proudly displaying our past, we show how God's light has guided us, replacing fear with hope and purpose.

As the Archives Workbook reminds us:
"Archives service is more than mere custodial activity; it involves sharing A.A.'s rich and meaningful heritage." (Page 13)

Let us honor A.A.'s legacy by sharing our experiences, strength, and hope. Join us on the 4th Tuesday of the month at 6:30PM at Central Office - 7121 US 19, New Port Richey
