In Memory

Our friend and fellow volunteer, “Pickle” Bill Stokes, has passed away. Bill devoted 36 years to teaching in public schools, including Folsom Elementary. Beyond his career in education, Bill found joy in many pursuits. He served as a docent on the Battleship New Jersey, coached basketball, and was a mentor to many friends of Bill W. A man of deep faith, he was a devoted elder of the Christian Church of Holiday, FL. Bill was known for his warm heart, his unwavering support for those around him, and his appreciation for the simple pleasures in life—especially desserts. He never turned down a sweet treat, with cheesecake holding a special place as his ultimate favorite.

Bill worked his last shift at Central Office on Monday March 24. Thursday night he suffered a stroke at home. He passed away the following Monday with his family at his side. Bill’s wife, Karen, told me that no matter what, when Monday afternoon came around, Bill said “No, I have to be at Central Office!”. Bill’s sense of commitment is symbolic of all Central Office Volunteers.

We will miss you, Bill. Your shift may have been filled, but your presence is irreplaceable.

Honoring the A.A. Fifth Tradition: Carrying the Message to Those Who Still Suffer

The Fifth Tradition is at the heart of Alcoholics Anonymous—our shared purpose that fuels the fellowship and guides our actions: “Each group has but one primary purpose—to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.” This tradition underscores our reason for being, reminding us that all A.A. efforts ultimately serve to help alcoholics find hope, healing, and freedom from alcoholism.

Whether through meetings, sponsorship, or service work, the Fifth Tradition encourages us to focus on the newcomer. Just as we were once welcomed into the rooms, guided by others who understood our pain and struggles, we now have the privilege and responsibility to reach out to those still trapped in alcoholism's grip. By sharing our experience, strength, and hope, we offer the lifeline that someone may desperately need to begin their recovery journey.

Carrying the message also means ensuring that our groups maintain the principles of A.A.—creating an atmosphere of unity, tolerance, and inclusivity. It’s not about offering advice or solving personal problems; it’s about showing others that sobriety is possible. Our stories serve as living proof of recovery, demonstrating the power of the Twelve Steps when combined with honesty, open-mindedness, and willingness to change.

The Fifth Tradition teaches us that service is a fundamental part of sobriety. By helping others, we strengthen our own recovery while nurturing the fellowship for future generations. Every meeting attended, every greeting extended, and every story shared embraces and embodies our primary purpose.

Let us recommit to the Fifth Tradition and keep A.A.’s doors open to those who need it most. Together, we can continue carrying the message into all corners of the world, ensuring no alcoholic seeking help is left behind. This is how A.A. thrives, one newcomer at a time.
