STEP 5 - TRADITION 5

Step Five: “Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.”

After making a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves in Step 4, we share what we have found, our resentments, fears, and harms done, with a trusted person without holding back. In doing this, we begin to lose the isolation and shame that kept us sick. This step brings a new kind of confidence and a sense of relief, as we face ourselves honestly. We see our patterns clearly and accept responsibility. This is not about judgment, but about humility and truth. By taking Step Five, we start to experience real freedom and prepare ourselves for the changes that will follow.

Tradition Five – “Each group has but one primary purpose—to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.”

This tradition is essential to the survival and effectiveness of the Fellowship. We are cautioned about becoming involved in outside issues, causes, or activities that could distract us from carrying the message. We focus on sharing our experience of recovery, hope, and the practical program of action. Maintaining a singleness of purpose, helps groups reach alcoholics in need and keeps members focused on staying sober without outside distractions.
