STEP 6 - TRADITION 6

Step Six: "Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character."
Step Six builds on the work of Steps Four and Five. Having identified defects of character through a searching moral inventory and admitted them to God and another person, we must now become willing to have those defects removed. The key words for Step 6 are entirely ready. Complete willingness is the goal, though few achieve it perfectly. The best we can do, with all the honesty that we can summon, is to try to have it. The principal obstacle is when we take satisfaction in our defects. Pride, anger, greed, and lust can feel useful or pleasurable. Rebellion and indefinite delay close the mind against change. When we honestly work at Step Six, without saying "this I will never give up," we have made the essential beginning.

Tradition Six: "An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, and prestige divert us from our primary purpose."
Tradition Six defines a boundary between A.A. and the rest of the world. A.A. groups may cooperate with outside organizations (treatment centers, hospitals, civic clubs) but must never affiliate with or endorse them. An A.A. group, as such, should never go into business; any material concerns should be separately incorporated and managed. The reason is practical: the accumulation of money, property, or individual authority can create serious hazards for spiritual growth. Keeping A.A. free from outside entanglements protects its single purpose: carrying themessage to the alcoholic who still suffers.
